left with no life inside to be awakened
F Dm Am
They will never see the morning sun again
Am C G
Hypocrisy killed the forsakened
Am E Am
Who thought, faith would be their only friend

(orchestra part

The scenery shows the ashes of some who tried to refuse
Rising smoke becomes one with the dim light of the pale and lurid moon
Can dark clouds hide the hidden from the mighty eye of god?
Using his name on the pretext of deciding who's allowed to live...)

PART3

F G F
From high above the Lord silently watches and grieves
F G F
And sadness rises from his inner deep
(orchestra part)
For thou, my son hath been crucified
Dm F G F
All the angels laid down their trumpets and cried
